FUTURE OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Universidad Camilo José Cela

ABOUT US

THE FUTURE OF HIGHER EDUCATION BY “CAMILO JOSÉ CELA UNIVERSITY”

- UCJC is a private university of the SEK Educational Institution, based in Madrid (Spain). It was founded in 2000.
- This project was carried out by Julio Sotos Crespo, Richard Ricaldi Luna, Sergio Urbino Ríos and Paco Colino .
- Our English teacher gave us access to the course.
- Our conclusions about the university of the future are basically that it needs remodeling and should be made freely accessible to all.

KEEP

- resources that have always functioned well:
- Students' residence on campus
- Social events and activities

ADD

- More learning schedule possibilities;
- More opportunities for scholarship
- More emphasis on quality research

ELIMINATE

- Theoretical assessment:
- Uncomfortable off-putting learning environments
- Over- consumption (work towards a sustainable campus)

FINAL CONCLUSIONS

THE FUTURE OF HIGHER EDUCATION BY "CAMILO JOSÉ CELA"

The education system in this country should be changed as it does not work. Education policies should look towards opportunities for options where young people are motivated to study. Emphasis should be placed on lifelong, mastery learning experiences and not just summative results. Professional Technical Training should be given the place it deserves in the university of the future.
